

Bardot Barstool

Gabriel Scott

Fusing a fine-profile black metal frame with contrasting hardware and plush vegan leather, the Bardot Barstool's timeless and elegant design means it complements any interior design scheme. The luxury barstool is commonly used for residential projects for the kitchen counter or home-bar as well as for restaurant and hotel projects.

Designed with versatility in mind, the Bardot Barstool is available in a number of neutral vegan leather finishes in combination with satin brass, satin copper or satin nickel hardware.
