

Equilibrium I

Equilibrium I consist of six elements. Each element is comprised of kiln formed art glass, a welded aluminum frame and an LED light source. The six elements are held in compression by twenty six stainless steel cables. Each element has two glass sides. One side is solid black and the other is white with a black border. The LED light source emanates through the white glass.

Price Upon Request

twentieth