

Equilibrium II

Equilibrium II is a light sculpture consisting of five triangular elements. Each triangle is comprised of kiln formed art glass, a welded aluminum frame and LED light source. The five elements are held in compression by 16 stainless steel cables. Each element has 2 glass sides. One side is solid black glass, and the other is white with a black border. The LED light source emanates through the white glass.

Price Upon Request