

espiral coffee table by luteca

Designed in the 1960s, the Espiral Coffee Table was one of Ramírez Vázquez's forward-looking and technically advanced designs. Using precision engineering to manufacture laser cut and bent sheet metal, this design is one of the most complex of the collection. Available in two sizes.

Price Upon Request

twentieth