

Fernando Copper Chair

Julian Mayor

The welding lines create counterpoint to the mirrored structure and the heat distortion adds a level of depth and interest to the surfaces of the chair. The fernando chair was developed on a computer and with scale models, but the physical making process of folding as well as welding adds a layer of depth to the construction.

$11,320

H30.7" x W26.8" x D25.6"

twentieth