

kaja coffee table

With its table top made from naturally crushed stone resting upon its sturdy powder-coated metal base, the simple lines of the Kaja belie its versatile nature. The optional tabletop inset may be used for a little gardening or filled with ice to chill wine, while individual pieces can be arranged in infinite combinations. Its black and whitewash versions fit into any setting.

Price Upon Request

twentieth