

Light Up My Face Sconce

Mattia Biagi

This sculptural wall lamp from Mattia Biagi expresses the personal investigation of the artist straddling life and death, nature and civilization, preservation and transformation.

$15,000

19.5" W x 1" D x 25.5" H

The images used to build the piece are references emerging from a lifetime of photographic clippings accumulated in the midst of magazines, pornography, art history, and personal photos.

After having been directly printed on marble with a multilayered ink process, the images are cut out and assembled.

twentieth