

Luna A Desk Lamp

Gabriel Scott

An elegant mix of glass and stone, the Luna A desk lamp stands out by the softness of its shapes and lines. Available in black stone with smoked glass or white stone with bronze glass, this desk lamp is controlled by an elegant inline dimmer.

“Luna A” is the first release in the new Gabriel Scott product class, named the “A-Series” by the studio. The Desk Lamp is one of eight lighting fixtures in the Luna A-Series based on the coveted design of the existing Luna light.
