

nanagona coffee table by luteca

Designed in the 1960s, the Nanagona Coffee Table was one of Ramírez Vázquez's forward-looking and technically advanced designs for the time. Using precision engineering to manufacture laser cut and bent sheet metal, this design is simplistic but classically beautiful and contemporary. Available in the customer's choice of a painted steel or polished stainless steel finish.

Price Upon Request

twentieth