

radial paloma coffee table by luteca

The first of Ramírez Vásquez's designs that he made for his own personal use, it was his favorite of all the laser cut and bent steel tables. The intricate pattern after cutting and folding of legs exposes a subtle and beautiful graphic flower. Available in two sizes, as well as the customer's choice of a painted steel or polished stainless steel finish.

Price Upon Request

twentieth