

Silhouette Wall Light

Ross Gardam

Silhouette's minimal fluted form is inspired by the archetype of a torch, where the materiality defines the luminance. The Silhouette Pendant offers superior flexibility in function and materiality. Each glass light is mouth blown in Australia, featuring striking natural variations that only present in mouth blown glass.

Designed with endless versatility in mind, the Silhouette Wall Light can be mounted at any angle on its own or in clusters, providing up-light, side-light and down-light options for any interior space. The Silhouette shade is available in glass or aluminium while the wall bracket is optioned in white and black creating a plethora of options for both residential and contract
