

trumpet coat stand by Mater

A new iconic object for placing coats, hats and bags. It has nine discs in three different sizes. Discs are fitted to the stand using turned wooden dowels. Shipped flat packed and manual assembled. Each component is turned manually on the lathe, showcasing the skill of the `kharaadi' or the wood turning community, thereby supporting local skills.

Price Upon Request

twentieth