

Welles Glass Long Chandelier 22

Gabriel Scott

The Welles Glass 22 Chandelier is designed as a transparent solid body of organic matrix, blown in white alabaster or smoked gray glass and connected by a finely woven metallic cable. Three colors and three textures are available as part of our Textured Glass finish, please refer to the Welles Textured Glass product page or get in touch for further information.

Each Welles Glass chandelier is handmade in our Montreal Studio and expresses our attention to good design and high craftsmanship.

The Welles Glass chandelier floats in the air diffusing a soft light through its prismatic glass. Discover other lighting options in our Welles Glass
