

Welles Steel Central Long Chandelier 16

Gabriel Scott

The Welles Steel Chandelier is the original Welles configuration. Choose from either a blend of white or black steel with copper, nickel or brass or an all over copper, nickel or brass finish. We have done custom steel finishes so please get in touch if you need something different to what is shown on our website.

The Welles Steel Chandelier is one of our most versatile lighting fixtures. A real statement piece, the Welles has been specified for all types of residential and hospitality settings, and are often used in dining rooms, kitchens, living areas, entranceways and bedrooms.
